Introducing Your Captain...

Captain Robert Camby

Captain Robert Camby was born in London and introduced to sea by his father who served in the Royal Navy. At 13, he won a music scholarship for piano and violin to St. John's School in Surrey, which was no surprise, as his maternal grandfather, the late Johnny Douglas, was the highly acclaimed film music composer of 'The Railway Children,' amongst others. He began his sea career at South Shields, Nautical College as a cadet with P&O Princess Cruises in 1995, sailing on Canberra. He gained his masters ticket in 2003, and in 2005 he was appointed as navigator to Cunard's Queen Mary 2, and appointed Deputy Captain in 2008. He is a member of the Honourable Company of Master Mariners, The Lord's Taverners and is a Freeman of the City of London. In December 2011 he was promoted to Captain and has commanded Oceana, Oriana, Aurora, Azura, Arcadia, Ventura, Queen Mary 2, Queen Victoria, Britannia and Iona. He is delighted to have been asked to be the inaugural Captain of Arvia and looks forward to welcoming you all on board. He lives in Warwickshire with his wife Danielle and their sons Austin and Jenson.

Welcome on board Arvia

We're thrilled to have you on board our newest ship. Arvia was designed to make the most of the sunshine and there are so many spots where you can enjoy the tropical climates of the regions she sails to.

The infinity pool, the swim-up bar, the Altitude minigolf course, the Splash Valley aqua zone and of course SkyDome, with its retractable roof.

So, whether you choose to join in exciting activities or simply relax with a good book (or a great cocktail!), you can enjoy amazing holiday moments while soaking up those golden rays.

Holidays as varied as you

1hour The ship's clocks will be put forward by one hour at 2.00am tomorrow morning (1 May) to GMT+2.
