Welcome to Barcelona

Arrival: 8.00am

All aboard: 5.30pm

The Catalan capital of Barcelona provides a vivid mix of ancient and modern but is probably best known for the bizarre Art Nouveau architecture of Antonio Gaudi, in particular the iconic Sagrada Família, Europe's most extraordinary – and still unfinished – cathedral. Boosted by hosting the Olympic Games in 1992, Barcelona's Old Port area has been transformed into a thriving area of cafés and restaurants. From there, it is an easy stroll up the famous Rambla to the old town. Las Ramblas is thronged with street entertainers, stalls and bars and is most lively at night and weekends.

Currency: € Euro

Going on a Shore Experience?

Here's some handy hints to make it a little easier:

- On arrival in port, please don't head to the gangways until after the 'Welcome' announcement has been made from the bridge.
- The gangway locations are shown on the digital screens positioned at all guest staircases.
- Please meet outside the terminal building for your tour 15 minutes before the departure time.
- Once ashore, the team, holding signs that say Arvia Shore Experiences, will be available to guide you.
- Have your cruise cards & tour tickets handy as you head to the gangway.
- Please note that tours cannot be held for latecomers and the last bus will leave at the departure time noted on your ticket.

Shipboard Information

Passports Ashore

Is it a local requirement to take my passport ashore today: No
However a form of photo ID must be carried ashore, a photocopy or digital version of your passport is acceptable.

Going Ashore in Spain

Whilst the majority of COVID protocols have been lifted by the Spanish authorities, masks are still required to be worn when in hospitals and pharmacies.

Ship's Security Notice

In order to prevent unauthorised persons boarding the ship, you are required to carry your "Cruise Card" with you when going ashore. You will be asked to produce this at the gangway when you leave and return to the ship. Be aware that we have established a secure area around the vessel and our security procedures require that you must be prepared to show your cruise card when entering this area, in addition to showing it to the security staff at the gangway when leaving or boarding the ship. We kindly ask you not to accept and bring on board any parcels or packages from strangers. Before boarding the ship, you may also be asked by our Security Staff to open parcels or handbags which you are carrying. We are sure that you will appreciate that this security is in the best interest of all concerned.

Barcelona Pickpockets - Think Safe When Ashore

Guests are advised to keep to the main tourism areas and are vigilant whilst ashore. Young pickpockets operate in groups in the busy streets. We recommend that you do not wear excessive amounts of jewellery or expensive watches and keep all hand or beach bags close to your body. We do not encourage you to take large amounts of cash or currency ashore with you if not required.

Spanish Tax

Please note that when we call into ports in mainland Spain and Spanish waters, select dining cover charges and all items purchased from the bars whilst we are in port, including wine with meals and room service beverages will be subject to Spanish value added tax at the rate of 10%. Our prices are displayed exclusive of this tax which will be charged in addition and will be itemised on your receipt.

Shuttle Bus Service

Shuttle bus will be in operation today between Arvia and World Trade Centre.

- ▶ This service will commence 15 minutes after the arrival clearance announcement.
- ▶ The transfer time is approximately 10 minutes each way and is subject to local traffic conditions on the day, during peak periods you may experience a wait for a shuttle.
- ▶ A limited wheelchair accessible service will be available.
- ▶ The last shuttle bus will depart from World Trade Centre at 5.00pm. Please bear in mind that the last shuttle bus may be in high demand and we ask you to consider this when planning your day.

Gary Barlow

We gratefully acknowledge the amazing sum of £33,610 which was collected for the Gary Barlow charity performances.

This will be donated to Teenage Cancer Trust and Gary Barlow's charity Child Bereavement UK.
