Welcome to Marseille

Arrival: 9.00am

All aboard: 6.00pm

Marseille is the home of bouillabaisse and boules, a great warm hearted city of immense charm with a picturesque old fishing port. Birthplace of the revolutionary Marseillaise, and the oldest city in France Guarding the entrance of the port are two forts, fort St-Jean and Fort St-Nicolas, built for King Louis XIVth. Rising serenely above the human hubbub, the statue of the Virgin Mary on the Church of Notre Dame de la Garde extends her arms in perpetual benediction. To really get to know the city you need to do a bit of exploring. Along the main street, the Canebriere, elegant shops stand side by side with characterful bars and restaurants, which serve its speciality, bouillabaisse.

Explore Ashore...

Going on a Shore Experience?

Here's some handy hints to make it a little easier:

- On arrival in port, please don't head to the gangways until after the 'Welcome' announcement has been made from the bridge.
- The gangway locations are shown on the digital screens positioned at all guest staircases.
- Please meet on the quayside for your tour 15 minutes before the departure time.
- Once ashore, the team, holding signs that say Arvia Shore Experiences, will be available to guide you.
- Have your cruise cards & tour tickets handy as you head to the gangway.
- Please note that tours cannot be held for latecomers and the last bus will leave at the departure time noted on your ticket.

Shipboard Information

Passports Ashore

Is it a local requirement to take my passport or government issued ID ashore today: Yes

Ship's Security Notice

In order to prevent unauthorised persons boarding the ship, you are required to carry your "Cruise Card" with you when going ashore. You will be asked to produce this at the gangway when you leave and return to the ship. Be aware that we have established a secure area around the vessel and our security procedures require that you must be prepared to show your cruise card when entering this area, in addition to showing it to the security staff at the gangway when leaving or boarding the ship. We kindly ask you not to accept and bring on board any parcels or packages from strangers. Before boarding the ship, you may also be asked by our Security Staff to open parcels or handbags which you are carrying. We are sure that you will appreciate that this security is in the best interest of all concerned.

French Public Holiday

Today is a Public Holiday celebrating Victory in Europe. While we have been told we should see minimal disruption to our call, some restaurant, shop and museums may have reduce opening hours. Our agent has also informed us that a ceremony will be held in the area of Porte d'Aix in Marseille (not far from the train station) this morning.

Shuttle Bus Service

A chargeable shuttle bus will be in operation today between Arvia and Quai De La Tourette (in front of La Major Cathedral)

- ▶ This service will commence 15 minutes after the arrival clearance announcement.
- ▶ The transfer time is approximately 30 minutes each way and is subject to local traffic conditions on the day, during peak periods you will experience a queue for the shuttle bus.
- ▶ A limited wheelchair accessible service will be available.
- ▶ The last shuttle bus will depart from Quai De La Tourette at 5.30pm. Please bear in mind that the last shuttle buses may be in high demand and we ask you to consider this when planning your day.
